

PRIVACY AND SECURITY

1. Introduction

Edmonds Marshall McMahon is the first specialist private prosecution law firm in the UK.

As an essential part of our business, we collect and manage client and non-client data. In doing so, we observe the UK data protection legislation, and are committed to protecting and respecting clients' and non-clients' privacy and rights. Specifically, we act as a "Data Controller" in respect of the information gathered and processed by us.

In order that you are reliably informed about how we operate, we have developed this privacy notice (also known as a Fair Processing Notice or "FPN"), which describes the ways in which we collect, manage, process, store and share information about you as a result of you visiting this site. The privacy notice also provides you with information about how you can have control over the use of your data.

If you have any comments or queries regarding our use of your data, please contact our Data Controller at datacontroller@emmlegal.com

Alternatively, you can write to our Data Controller at Edmonds Marshall McMahon, 35 Cock Lane, London, EC1A 9BW

2. What Information Do We Collect About You?

In general terms, we seek to collect information about you so that we can:

- Administer our relationship with you, provide services and respond to enquiries

5. Is The Processing Of Information Likely To Cause Individuals To Object Or Complain?

Edmonds Marshall McMahon is not aware of any justifiable reasons that would constitute a legitimate reason for objecting or complaining about the way we process or control information.

6. How Long Will We Retain Information For?

Edmonds Marshall McMahon will typically retain information for a period of seven years. This is due to regulatory reasons and to ensure our business records are adequate to maintain the requisite levels of insurance to protect our clients and non-clients.

7. Overseas Transfers

None of the information that we collect process or store as a result of this website is transferred outside of the European Economic Area (EEA). This includes information that is exchanged with any third party organisation as described above.

8. Data Privacy and Security

At Edmonds Marshall McMahon, we maintain a comprehensive data management work programme, which includes processes for ensuring that data protection is a key consideration of all new and existing IT systems that hold personal data. Where any concerns, risks or issues are identified, we conduct relevant impact assessments in order to determine any actions that are necessary to ensure optimum privacy.

We also maintain an active information security work programme, which seeks to protect the availability, confidentiality and integrity of all physical and information assets.

Specifically, this helps us to:

- a. Protect against potential breaches of confidentiality;
- b. Ensure all IT facilities are protected against damage, loss or misuse;
- c. Increase awareness and understanding of the requirements of information security, and the responsibility of our colleagues to protect the confidentiality and integrity of the information that they handle; and
- d. Ensure the optimum security of this website.

9. Location Tracking Via Our Website

Geo-location tracking, which shows us where you are in the UK, is not used on this website.
